Fund allocations

As of September 30, 2024

The Portfolio Navigator funds are “funds of funds” that are composed of a broad range of underlying funds and investment managers, across all major asset classes and market sectors. They are traditional, strategic asset allocation funds, with equity and fxed income allocations that remain relatively consistent over time. The allocations shown are subject to change.